*hangingditch is a natural ditch which connects the rivers Irk and Irwell.
It is thought the ditch was named after the manner in which textiles were hung to drain and drip after fulling. The beginnings of textile manufacture in Manchester can be traced back to 1322.*

company registered in england no. 6410513

At Hanging Ditch we champion esoteric & high quality wines at all different price-points. We constantly search for the best wines we can find, with quality being our driving focus.

Our wines come from small quality conscious producers, as consequence of this we cannot guarantee year long availability of our products, however due to our diverse selection we will always be able to recommend something similar in style, or something new & exciting!
